Florida is a leading tourist state. People visit this state to see the Space Center at Cape Canaveral and Epcot Center and Disney World near Orlando. Other popular places include Everglades National Park and St. Augustine, the oldest city in the United States. Lots of oranges and grapefruit are grown in Florida.

Virginia is a historic state. Here you can see Mount Vernon, the home of George Washington. Williamsburg is a city restored to look like the 1700's. One of the world's largest shipyards is at Newport News. The Blue Ridge Mountains are in Virginia.

West Virginia is often called "The Mountain State." The mountains are filled with tumbling rivers and rugged forests. There are many coal mines in West Virginia.

North Carolina is the leading tobacco state. Kitty Hawk is the site of the world's first airplane flight by the Wright Brothers. There are many famous battlefields in North Carolina.

Georgia is the leading peanut-producing state. The hometown of former President Jimmy Carter is Plains. Interesting sights in Georgia include towering pine trees, peach groves, magnolias, mossy trees, and marble and granite quarries.

South Carolina is the place to see many beautiful, old Southern plantations and lots of lovely beaches and gardens. Fort Sumter, site of the opening battle of the Civil War, is in South Carolina.
